OUR SERVICES

Pathway of Hope

Pathway of Hope provides support for individuals and families through an intensive support system helping them raise their standard of living by connecting them to services that are available within our community while walking alongside them as they map out their journey of success. It enables a network of support; a sense of community; holistic programs and spiritual guidance.

Community Care Centre: Housing with Supports

We provide longer term accommodations to those needing assistance who have had a breakdown in their community-based living and may require support in dealing with their mental health or other concerns. Our Housing With Supports promotes hope in a supportive, compassionate environment.

Spiritual Care and Chaplaincy Services:

We provide spiritual support to those who seek it. Our on-site chaplain is available to meet with anyone interested in improving their spiritual health and well-being.

Chapel Services are held regularly
Mondays 4 pm

 All are welcome to worship with us.*

Food Bank: Open Monday, Wednesday, Thursday

11:30 PM - 3:30 PM

We provide basic needs of food, house hold items and clothing for low income individuals and families.

People who use our food bank are given the opportunity to make their own food choices.

Appointment only:

Christmas Assistance

Toys & Food

We provide food and toys for children during the Christmas Season.

Christmas Dinner Celebration

We host an annual Community Christmas dinner in partnership with St. Clair Centre for the Arts.

Christmas Kettle Campaign

Our Christmas Kettle Campaign donations assist us in providing programs and food for those who need support in the city of Windsor

Court Services

Providing emotional support and practical assistance to victims, witnesses, accused in a court room location.

Emergency Shelter:

We provide overnight shelter for homeless men aged 16 and older on a short term, emergency basis. Operating under the Housing First model, our onsite Social Workers assist clients in securing permanent housing, provide follow-up assistance, and assist in setting up supports and resources to make their house a home.

The Learning Centre Day Care

Teaching children through creative and sensory play.
